Residential on 0.28 Acres

Penick Place, Austin, TX

Unbelievable value at $504/SF. Luxurious New Construction and incredible value on Historic Golf Course. This new custom residence, design by Dallas based architect Matt Parker, blends timeless design with exceptional craftsmanship in one of Austin's most historically rich and scenic locations. Located on a quiet, private, street, this 5BD 4.5BA home spans 4,166 SF and sits on a spacious, tree-shaded lot with mature pecans. A gate connects directly to the 300-acre Riverside Golf Course.

The course, designed in 1949 by Perry Maxwell, was once the site of Austin Country Club and where Ben Crenshaw and Tom Kite trained. The home's architecture and the magnolia-lined street honor this legacy with elegance. Despite the peaceful, natural surroundings, the home is just minutes from downtown and the airport. From the backyard, enjoy watching deer on the fairways and hawks and owls overhead in a serene setting that feels worlds away.

Inside, the open-concept living space features soaring 14' ceilings, a gas fireplace, and 9" European oak plank flooring. The kitchen offers rift-cut oak cabinetry, dovetail drawers, a JennAir paneled appliance package, pot filler, and oversized pantry. Nearby, a private owner's planning desk connects to the large mud/laundry room. The primary suite is separated and private and pure luxury.

The home is fully gated and pre-wired for speakers, security, and electric shades throughout, including the primary suite. Additional features include an AV/coat closet under the stairs, decked attic storage over the oversized garage, and an electric-gated driveway. Upstairs, a game room with built-in desks opens to a turf walk-out patio offering breathtaking views of the course and seasonal downtown views. Secondary bedrooms are generously sized, and the Jack-and-Jill bath.

Out back, enjoy a 460 SF covered porch with fans and speakers overlooking the sparkling pool and expansive deck—ideal for relaxing or entertaining. 2/1 buy down available.
