James P Wallace League, Austin, TX

Experience the pinnacle of sophistication in Hyde Park, one of Austin's most iconic and sought-after neighborhoods, where timeless charm and serene, tree-lined streets converge with elevated, modern living. Nestled in the heart of this historic district, 4911 Duval Street is a brand-new luxury residence that embodies thoughtful design, high-end finishes, and uncompromising quality. This exceptional home is brought to you by the dream team of F&B Homes and Friedman General Contracting, known for their masterful craftsmanship and commitment to excellence, and features architectural design by the renowned Steve Zagorski, whose work has long defined the cutting edge of contemporary Austin architecture. Boasting an uber-functional and intuitively designed layout, the home offers 3 spacious bedrooms, 2.5 designer bathrooms, a versatile loft, and a dedicated office space, ideal for today's lifestyle needs—whether you're working from home, hosting guests, or simply relaxing in comfort. The main level is adorned with soaring 10' ceilings, creating an airy ambiance that flows seamlessly into a chef's kitchen outfitted with an incredible KitchenAid appliance suite, ProCraft custom cabinetry, luxurious countertops, and hand-selected lighting and plumbing fixtures that strike a perfect balance between modern flair and classic elegance. Premium 7.5" wide, & 1/2" thick white oak engineered hardwood flooring extends throughout the home, complemented by floor-to-ceiling tile in the bathrooms for a polished, spa-like finish. Every inch of this home speaks to quality and intention, from the curated material palette to the custom carpentry and sophisticated design choices. Outside, professional landscaping enhances curb appeal and creates a private oasis for outdoor enjoyment. The one-car garage includes wiring for an EV charging station, rounding out the forward-thinking functionality of this rare offering. STR projections are $100K+ annually - perfect investment opportunity!
