A Singular Expression of Craft, Character, and Livable Luxury built by the acclaimed Jack Boothe Construction.

4600 Parkdale Place #1 is a newly completed masterpiece that redefines modern living in South Central Austin. With 2,835 square feet of highly intentional design, this residence is a rare blend of refined craftsmanship, architectural soul, and enduring quality—the kind of home that feels both elevated and deeply personal.

From the moment you enter, it's clear this isn't a typical new build. Every surface, finish, and fixture has been hand-selected by and for the builder herself, resulting in a space filled with character, warmth, and originality. Expect artisan tilework, natural stone, rich wood flooring, statement lighting, and custom cabinetry throughout—each element chosen not just for beauty, but for longevity.

The open-concept layout flows seamlessly from a spacious living room into an entertainer's kitchen featuring top-tier appliances, custom millwork, and a sculptural center island. Large windows bring in soft natural light and frame views of the professionally landscaped grounds, enhancing the home's connection to the outdoors.

Situated at the end of a quiet cul-de-sac on over one-third of an acre, this property offers a rare combination of space, privacy, and design pedigree in one of Austin’s most walkable and sought-after neighborhoods.

This is not just a house—it’s a legacy home, thoughtfully built to serve generations to come.

There is truly nothing like it currently on the market—an exceptional offering from one of Austin’s most respected builders!
